Notes:

1. An APA is an “arrangement that determines, in advance of controlled transactions, an appropriate set of criteria (e.g. method, comparables and appropriate adjustments thereto, critical assumptions as to future events) for the determination of the transfer pricing for those transactions over a fixed period of time”. (See definition of APA in the OECD Transfer Pricing Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and Tax Administrations (“Transfer Pricing Guidelines”).)

2. Situations may arise in which the issues resolved through an APA are relevant with respect to previously filed tax years not included within the original scope of the APA. The concept of “roll-back” is further elaborated in Paragraph 4.136 of Section F (Advance Pricing Arrangement) of Chapter IV of the Transfer Pricing Guidelines and in Paragraph 69 of Section D.4.2 (Possible retrospective application (“Roll back”)) of the Annex to Chapter IV (Guidelines for Conducting Advance Pricing Arrangements under the Mutual Agreement Procedure (“MAP APAs”)) of the Transfer Pricing Guidelines. Simply put, the “roll-back” of the APA is understood to mean that the outcome of the APA is applied to previously filed tax years not included within the original scope of the APA.

B. Availability and Access to MAP
5.	Are transfer pricing cases covered within the scope of MAP?	Yes

MAP has not been resolved between the taxpayer and the Barbados Revenue Authority or where the case is being adjudicated by the Barbados Revenue Appeals Tribunal. While Sections 59 to 63 of Barbados' Income Tax Act Cap. 73 outline the appellate process and the limitations relating thereto, Sections 83 (1) and 83 (4) respectively of the Act also serve to transpose Barbados' DTAs into law and in the event of an inconsistency between the provisions of the particular DTA and the Income Tax Act, the provisions of the DTA prevail to the extent of the inconsistency. Therefore, regardless of the appellate procedure and limitations provided under Sections 59 to 63, a taxpayer would not be denied access to MAP because the equivalent of Article 25(1) in Barbados' DTAs, which states that MAP access should be allowed irrespective of domestic remedies, would prevail over Sections 59 to 63 of the Income Tax Act.
12.	Are taxpayers allowed to request MAP assistance in cases where the issue under dispute has already been decided via the judicial and administrative	Yes	The Barbados Revenue Authority will be bound by any decision issued by a domestic

Yes	If the tax treaty does not contain a filing period for MAP requests and will not be modified by the MLI, Barbados' competent authority will follow the time limit provided for in Article 25(1), second sentence, of the OECD Model Tax Convention (OECD, 2017), namely three years as from the first notification of the action resulting in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of the tax treaty.
15.	Is guidance on multilateral MAPs publicly available?	Yes		Link: MAP Guidance

However, Barbados would grant MAP access to all eligible cases under the tax treaty, but that this condition would only be applicable where an objection raised by a taxpayer is considered as not justified based on Barbados' tax treaty policy and interpretation as allowed under the equivalent of Article 25(2) contained in Barbados' tax treaties and as interpreted by the Commentary on Article 25 of the OECD Model Tax Convention.
